Article 21 The Company's board of directors may take all necessary actions for the separate issuance of the Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and Domestic-Invested Shares after the proposals for the same have been approved by the CSRC. The Company may implement its proposals to issue Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and Domestic-Invested Shares pursuant to the preceding paragraph within 15 months from the date of approval by the CSRC.

Upon approval by the CSRC, the non-listed shares of the Company held by its shareholders may be listed and traded in overseas markets. The listing and trade of such shares in overseas markets shall be subject to the relevant supervisory procedures, stipulations and requirements of such overseas securities markets. Such listing and trade of shares in overseas markets do not require voting at the meeting of shareholders of the relevant class.

Article 22 Where the Company separately issues Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and Domestic-Invested Shares, and the total number of shares to be issued is within the issuance proposals, the shares should be fully allotted in one issuance. If this is not possible due to special circumstances, the shares may, subject to the approval of the CSRC, be issued on separate occasions.

Article 23 Upon completion of issuance of the 180,000,000 Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares of the Company as approved by the CSRC, the registered capital of the Company shall be RMB680,000,000.

Article 24 Based on the Company's operational and development needs, the Company may authorize the increase of its capital in accordance with these Articles of Association.

The increase of the Company's capital may take any of the following forms:

1. public offer of shares;
2. private issue of shares;
3. bonus issue or rights issue of new shares to the existing shareholders;
4. conversion of capital reserve into share capital'
5. any other form as permitted by the laws and administrative regulations, and approved by the CSRC.

After the approval in accordance with these Articles of Association, the Company's increase of capital by issuing new shares shall be made in accordance with the procedures set out in the relevant laws and administrative regulations.

Article 25 Unless otherwise provided in the laws and administrative regulations, the shares of the Company may be transferred, given away, inherited and pledged without any lien attached thereupon. For the transfer of any Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares that are listed in Hong Kong, the Company shall entrust local share registration agent(s) in Hong Kong to handle the transfer registration.

Article 26 The Company shall not accept the pledging of its share certificates.

Article 27 Any shares held by any promoter of the Company shall not be transferred within 1 year upon the establishment of the Company. Any shares that have been issued before the Company's public listing shall not be transferred within 1 year from the date on which the Company's shares are listed in the stock exchange.

The directors, supervisors and senior management personnel shall declare to the Company of the shares of the Company held thereby and any change thereof. The total number of shares of the Company such personnel may transfer every year while he/she holds office shall not exceed 25% of all shares he/she holds, and none of the shares so held may be transferred within 1 year from the date on which the Company's shares are listed in the stock exchange. The aforementioned personnel may not transfer any shares of the Company they hold within 6 months upon their departure from the Company. If the share transfer referred to in this Article involves H Shares, such share transfer shall be subject to the stipulations of the Listing Rules.

Chapter 4 Decrease of Capital and Repurchase of Shares

Article 28 The Company may decrease its registered capital in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 29 When the Company decreases its registered capital, it shall prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets.

The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days of the date of the Company's resolution to decrease its registered capital and shall publish at least 3 announcements in newspaper(s) within 30 days. Creditors are entitled to request the Company to repay its debts or to provide a corresponding guarantee for such debt within 30 days of receipt of notice from the Company or, in the case of a creditor who does not receive such notice, within 90 days of the date of the first announcement.

The Company's registered capital may not, after the reduction in capital, be less than the minimum amount prescribed by law.

Article 30 Under any of the following circumstances, the Company may, upon approval in accordance with the procedures provided in these Articles of Association and subject to the permit given by the competent authorities, repurchase its issued shares:

1. cancellation of shares for the purposes of decreasing its registered capital;
2. merging with another company that holds shares of the Company;

3. rewarding the employees of the Company with shares;
4. upon request by a shareholder for the Company to repurchase the shares held thereby due to its objection to any resolution of merger or division made by the Company at general meeting;
5. any other circumstances permitted by laws and administrative regulations.

The Company's repurchase of its shares due to reasons set out in Items 1 to 3 above shall be approved by general meeting. In the event that the Company repurchases its shares under paragraph 1, the shares so repurchased shall be cancelled within 10 days upon such repurchase. In the event that the Company repurchases its shares under Items 2 or 4, the shares so repurchased shall be transferred or cancelled within 6 months upon such repurchase.

The shares repurchased by the Company under Item 3 of the first paragraph shall not exceed 5% of all issued shares of the Company, the capital used for such repurchase shall be paid out of the after-tax profit of the Company, and all shares so repurchased shall be transferred to its employees within 1 year.

Article 31 The Company may repurchase shares in one of the following ways, with the approval of the relevant competent authority:

1. by making an offer for the repurchase of shares to all its shareholders on a pro-rata basis;
2. by on-market repurchase;
3. by off-market repurchase through agreement.

Article 32 The Company shall obtain prior approval of the shareholders in a general meeting in the manner stipulated in these Articles of Association before it can effect an off-market repurchase through agreement. The Company may, by obtaining the prior approval of the shareholders in a general meeting in the same manner, rescind or vary any contract which has been so entered into, or waive any of its rights thereunder.

A contract for the repurchase of shares referred to in the preceding paragraph includes (but is not limited to) an agreement which causes the Company to become entitled or obliged to repurchase its shares.

The Company may not assign any contract for the repurchase of its shares or any right contained in such contract.

Article 33 After the Company legally repurchases any of its shares, it shall cancel or transfer such shares in accordance with the laws and administrative regulations, and apply for the change of registration with its original authority of registration.

The aggregate nominal value of the cancelled shares shall be deducted from the Company's registered capital.

Article 34 Unless the Company is in liquidation, it shall comply with the following provisions in relation to repurchase of its outstanding shares:

1. where the Company repurchases shares at nominal value, payment shall be made out of the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds from a new issue of shares made for that purpose;

2. where the Company repurchases its shares of the Company at a premium, payment up to the nominal value may be made out of the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds from a new issue of shares made for that purpose. Payment of the premium shall be effected as follows:

- (1) if the shares being repurchased were issued at nominal value, payment shall be made out of the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company;
- (2) if the shares being repurchased were issued at a premium, payment shall be made out of the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds from a new issue of shares made for that purpose, provided that the amount paid out of the proceeds from the new issue shall not exceed the premium received by the Company on the issue of the repurchased shares nor shall it exceed the book value of the Company's capital reserve account (including any premiums on the new issue) at the time of the repurchase.

If the repurchase of shares by the Company is not made on-market or by tender, the share repurchase price shall be limited within a maximum price; if such repurchase is made by tender, the tenders shall be issued to all shareholders equally.

3. the Company shall make any payment for the following purposes out of the Company's distributable profits:

- (1) obtaining the right to repurchase its own shares;
- (2) amendments to any contract for the repurchase of its shares;
- (3) release of the Company's obligation(s) under any contract for the repurchase of shares.

4. after the Company's registered capital has been decreased by the aggregate nominal value of the cancelled shares in accordance with the relevant provisions, the amount deducted from the distributable profits of the Company for payment of the nominal value of shares which have been repurchased shall be recorded in the Company's capital reserve account.

Chapter 5 Financial Assistance for Purchase of Company Shares

Article 35 The Company shall not, at any time, provide any form of financial assistance to a person who acquires or proposes to acquire shares of the Company. Such person aforementioned includes any person who directly or indirectly incurs any obligations as a result of acquisition of shares in the Company.

The Company shall not, at any time, provide any form of financial assistance for the purposes of reducing or discharging the obligations assumed by any person as mentioned above.

This Article does not apply to the situation as provided in Article 37 hereof.

Article 36 For the purposes of this Chapter, "financial assistance" includes (but is not limited to) the following:

1. gifts;
2. provision of guarantee (including the assumption of obligations of another or provision of assets to secure the performance of obligations by another), provision of compensation (other than compensation arising out of the Company's own fault), or release or waiver of any right;

3. provision of a loan or the making of any other agreement under which the obligations of the Company are to be fulfilled before the obligations of another party, or the change in parties to, or the assignment of rights under, such loan or contract;
4. any other form of financial assistance given by the Company when the Company is unable to pay its debts, has no net assets or when its net assets would be reduced by a material extent.

For the purposes of this Chapter, assumption of obligations by a person includes the assumption of obligations by way of contract or other arrangement (irrespective of whether such contract or arrangement is enforceable, and irrespective of whether such obligations are borne solely by such person or jointly with other persons) or by any other means which results in a change in his financial position.

Article 37 The following acts shall not be deemed to be acts prohibited by Article 35 of these Articles of Association:

1. the Company provides any financial assistance in good faith in the interests of the Company, and the principal purpose of such financial assistance is not for the acquisition of shares of the Company, or such financial assistance is an incidental part of certain master plan of the Company;
2. the lawful distribution of the Company's assets as dividends;
3. the distribution of dividends in the form of shares;
4. decrease of registered capital, repurchase of shares of the Company or reorganization of the shareholding structure of the Company effected in accordance with these Articles of Association;
5. the provision of loans by the Company for its normal operations within its normal scope of business (provided that this does not reduce the net assets of the Company or that financial assistance is provided out of the distributable profits of the Company, if it does reduce the net assets of the Company);

6. contributions made by the Company to employee share schemes (provided that this does not reduce the net assets of the Company or that financial assistance is provided out of the distributable profits of the Company, if it does reduce the net assets of the Company).

Chapter 6 Share Certificates and Register of Shareholders

Article 38 Share certificates of the Company shall be in registered form.

The share certificates of the Company shall bear all items as set forth in the Company Law, Special Regulations, as well as those as required by the stock exchange on which the shares are listed.

During the period in which H Shares are listed in Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the Company shall ensure that all ownership documents of the securities listed in Hong Kong Stock Exchange (including the share certificates of H Shares) shall contain the following declarations, and shall instruct and prompt its share transfer registration agency to refuse the subscription, purchase or transfer of any shares that are registered under any individual shareholder, unless such individual provides to such agency with a properly filled-in form regarding the shares in question, which shall include the following declarations:

1. the purchaser of the shares and the Company and each of its shareholders, and the Company and each shareholder thereof, all agree to observe and abide by the Company Law, Special Regulations, and other laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association of the Company;

2. the purchaser of the shares, the Company, each one of its shareholders, directors, supervisors, general manager and senior management personnel all agree, and the Company representing the PRC issuer and each one of its directors, supervisors, general manager and senior management personnel agree with each of its shareholder, that any dispute or claim arisen from the rights or obligations as provided in these Articles of Association, the Company Law or any other relevant laws or administrative regulations, or in relation to the Company's affairs, shall be submitted to arbitration as provided in these Articles of Association, and any arbitration shall be deemed as having authorized the arbitral tribunal to hold open hearings and to announce its award. Such arbitration award shall be final;
3. the purchaser of the shares and the Company and each of its shareholders agree that any Company's shares may be transferred freely by the holder thereof;
4. the purchaser of the shares authorizes the Company to enter into agreement on its behalf with each one of the Company's directors, general manager and senior management personnel, under which such directors, general manager and senior management personnel warrant to observe and perform their respective obligations against the Company's shareholders as provided in these Articles of Association.

Article 39 Share certificates of the Company shall be signed by the chairman of the board of directors. If the stock exchange(s) on which the Company's shares are listed require other senior management personnel of the Company to sign, the share certificates shall also be signed by such person(s). The share certificates shall become effective after being sealed with the seal of the Company, or with the seal sign in printed form. The share certificate shall only be sealed with the Company's seal under the authorization of the board of directors. The signatures of the chairman of the board of the board of directors or other senior management personnel of the Company may be in printed form.

Article 40 The Company shall keep a register of shareholders which shall contain the following particulars:

1. the name and address (residence), the occupation or nature of each shareholder;
2. the class and quantity of shares held by each shareholder;
3. the amount paid-up on or agreed to be paid on the shares held by each shareholder;
4. the share certificate number(s) of the shares held by each shareholder;
5. the date on which each shareholder was registered as a shareholder;
6. the date on which any shareholder ceased to be a shareholder.

Unless there is evidence to the contrary, the register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence of the shareholders' shareholdings in the Company.

When two or more persons are registered as the co-holders of any shares, they shall be deemed as joint shareholders of such shares, subject to the following conditions:

1. the Company is not obligated to register more than 4 joint shareholders of any shares;
2. all joint shareholders shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of all amount payable for the shares jointly owned;
3. if one of the joint shareholders is deceased, only the remaining joint shareholder(s) shall be regarded by the Company as owner(s) of the relevant shares, but the board of directors is entitled to request death certificate of the relevant shareholder as it deemed appropriate for the purpose of changing the registered information of shareholders; and

4. for joint shareholders of any shares, only the joint shareholder whose name appears first in the register of shareholders has the right to receive the share certificate of the relevant shares from the Company and to receive notices of the Company, while any notice served on such shareholder shall be treated as having been served on all joint shareholders of the relevant shares. Any of the joint shareholders may sign this proxy form. Where more than one joint holders attend the meeting, whether in person or by proxy, the vote of the senior joint shareholder who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, will be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint shareholder(s) and for this purpose seniority will be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of shareholders of the Company in respect of the joint shareholding.

Article 41 The Company may, in accordance with the mutual understanding and agreements made between the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council and overseas securities regulatory organizations, maintain the register of shareholders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares overseas and appoint overseas agent(s) to manage such register of shareholders.

The original register of shareholders for holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares listed in Hong Kong shall be maintained in Hong Kong. A duplicate register of shareholders for the holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares shall be maintained at the Company's residence. The appointed overseas agent(s) shall ensure consistency between the original and the duplicate registers of shareholders at all times.

In the event of any inconsistency between the original and the duplicate registers of shareholders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares, the original register of shareholders shall prevail.

Article 42 The Company shall keep a complete register of shareholders. The register of shareholders shall comprise the following parts:

1. the register of shareholders which is maintained at the Company's residence (other than those share registers which are described Items 2 and 3 of this Article);
2. the register of shareholders in respect of the holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares of the Company which is maintained in the same place as the overseas stock exchange on which the shares are listed;
3. the register of shareholders which is maintained in such other place as the board of directors may consider necessary for the purposes of the listing of the Company's shares.

Article 43 Different parts of the register of shareholders shall not overlap. While transferred shares continue to be registered in one part of the register of shareholders, they shall not be registered in another part of the register.

Amendments or rectification of the register of shareholders shall be made in accordance with the laws of the place where the register of shareholders is maintained.

Article 44 All Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares listed in Hong Kong Stock Exchange which have been fully paid-up may be freely transferred in accordance with the Articles of Association. However, unless such transfer complies with the following requirements, the board of directors may refuse to recognize any document of transfer and would not need to provide any reason therefor:

1. transfer documents and other documents which relates to share ownership or may affect share ownership shall be registered, and a fee determined under the Listing Rules shall be paid to the Company for such registration;

2. the document of transfer only relates to Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares listed in Hong Kong Stock Exchange;
3. the stamp duty which is chargeable on the document of transfer has already been paid;
4. the relevant share certificate(s) and any other evidence which the board of directors may reasonably require to evidence that the transferor has the right to transfer the shares have been provided;
5. if it is intended that the shares be transferred to joint shareholders, the maximum number of joint shareholders shall not be more than 4;
6. the Company does not have any lien on the relevant shares;
7. no share shall be transferred to a minor, mentally challenged or legally incapacitated person.

If the Company refuses to register a share transfer, the Company shall send the transferor and the transferee a notice of refusal to register the said share transfer within 2 months from the date of submission of the application for transfer.

Article 45 Upon the completion of share transfer, any transferee's name shall be recorded in the register of shareholders as the holder of such shares.

Article 46 The issuance and consequent transfer of any H Shares shall be registered in the register of shareholders maintained in Hong Kong pursuant to Article 42 of these Articles of Association.

Article 47 All Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shareholders may use the written transfer document commonly used in the place of listing. The written transfer document can be signed by hand or with a machine print signature, to transfer any or all of its shares. The shares held by Non-Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares shall be conducted in compliance with the PRC laws and regulations. All transfer documents shall be maintained at the legal residence of the Company or any other address as appointed by the board of directors from time to time.

Article 48 No change may be made in the register of shareholders as a result of a transfer of shares within 30 days prior to the date of a general meeting or within 5 days before the determination date for the Company's distribution of dividends.

Article 49 When the Company needs to convene a general meeting for the purposes of dividend distribution, liquidation or for any other purpose for which shareholdings need to be determined, the board of directors or the convener of the general meeting shall determine a record date for the determination of shareholdings. The shareholders of the Company shall be such persons who appear in the register of shareholders at the close of such record date.

Article 50 Any person who disputes the register of shareholders and asks for inclusion of his name in or removal of his name from the register of shareholders may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for rectification of the register.

Article 51 For any person who is a registered shareholder or who claims to be entitled to have his name entered in the register of shareholders in respect of shares in the Company may, if his share certificate (the “Original Certificate”) relating to the shares is lost, apply to the Company for a replacement share certificate in respect of such shares (the “Relevant Shares”). Application for reissued share certificate(s) by any holder of Domestic-Invested Shares and Non-Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares who lost his share certificate(s) shall be handled in accordance with Article 143 of the Company Law.

Application for reissuance of share certificate(s) by any holder of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares who lost his share certificate(s) shall be handled in accordance with the laws, rules of stock exchange or other relevant regulations of the place where the original register of shareholders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares is maintained.

The reissuance of a share certificate to a shareholder of H Shares, who has lost his share certificate, shall comply with the following requirements:

1. The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in a prescribed form accompanied by a notarial certificate or a statutory declaration, of which the contents shall include the grounds upon which the application is made and the circumstances and evidence of loss, and the declaration that no other person is entitled to have his name entered in the register of shareholders in respect of the Relevant Shares.
2. The Company has not received any declaration made by any person other than the applicant requesting his name being entered in the register of shareholders in respect of such shares before it decides to reissue a share certificate to the applicant.

3. The Company shall, if it intends to reissue a share certificate, publish a notice of its intention to do so at least once every 30 days within a period of 90 consecutive days in such newspapers as may be prescribed by the board of directors.
4. The Company shall, prior to publication of its intention to reissue a share certificate, deliver to the stock exchange on which its shares are listed, a copy of the notice to be published and may publish the notice upon receipt of confirmation from such stock exchange that the notice has been exhibited in the premises of the stock exchange. Such notice shall be exhibited in the premises of the stock exchange for a period of 90 days. In the case of an application which is made without the consent of the registered shareholder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall deliver by mail to such registered shareholder a copy of the notice to be published.
5. If, upon the expiration of the 90-day period referred to in Items 3 and 4 of this Article, the Company has not received any objection from any person in respect of the reissuance of the share certificate, it may reissue a share certificate to the applicant pursuant to his application.
6. Where the Company reissues a share certificate pursuant to this Article, it shall forthwith cancel the Original Certificate and document such cancellation and reissuance of a share certificate in the register of shareholders accordingly.
7. All expenses relating to the cancellation of an Original Certificate and the reissuance of a share certificate shall be borne by the applicant and the Company is entitled to refuse to take any action until reasonable guarantee has been provided by the applicant.

Article 52 Where the Company reissues a share certificate pursuant to the Articles of Association, a bona fide purchaser obtaining new share certificates referred to above or a shareholder registered as a holder of the shares (if he is a bona fide purchaser), his name shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

Article 53 The Company shall not be liable for any damage sustained by any person by reason of the cancellation of the Original Certificate or the reissuance of the share certificate unless the claimant is able to prove fraud on the part of the Company.

Chapter 7 Rights and Obligations of Shareholders

Article 54 A shareholder of the Company is a person who lawfully holds shares in the Company and whose name is entered in the register of shareholders.

A shareholder shall enjoy rights and assume obligations according to the class and amount of shares held by him; shareholders who hold shares of the same class shall enjoy equal rights and assume the same class of obligations.

The shareholders of different classes of the Company shall have equal rights with respect to dividends or any distribution in any other form.

Article 55 The shareholders of ordinary shares of the Company enjoy the following rights:

1. to receive dividends and other forms of distributions of benefits in proportion to their shareholdings;
2. attend general meeting in person or by proxy, and exercise voting right;
3. to supervise and manage the Company's business operations, to make proposals and to raise queries;
4. to transfer shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the provisions of the Articles of Association;
5. to obtain relevant information in accordance with the Articles of association, including:
 - (1) a copy of the Articles of Association, subject to payment of costs;

- (2) the right to inspect and copy, subject to payment of a reasonable fee:
- ① all parts of the register of shareholders;
 - ② personal information of each of the Company's directors, supervisors, senior management personnel including: present and former names and aliases; principal address (place of residence); nationality; primary and all other part-time occupations and duties; identification documents and numbers;
 - ③ the status of the Company's share capital;
 - ④ the latest audited financial statements of the Company and reports from the board of directors, the board of supervisors and the auditor;
 - ⑤ the special resolutions of the Company;
 - ⑥ the reports on the aggregate par value, quantity, highest and lowest prices of shares of each class repurchased by the Company since the last fiscal year, and the aggregate amount paid therefor;
 - ⑦ the minutes of general meetings, resolutions of the board of directors, resolutions of the board of supervisors;
 - ⑧ counterfoil of the Company's debentures.

The Company shall maintain all documents set forth in Items ①-⑧ except Item ② and other relevant documents at the Company's residence in Hong Kong for review by the public and the shareholder, free of charge (except for Item ⑦ which is reserved for the review by shareholders only).

If a shareholder requests review of any of the abovementioned information or acquiring any such documents, he shall provide written documents evidencing the class and number of shares of the Company he holds, and the Company shall provide such information or documents after it confirms the identity of such shareholder.

6. in the event of the winding-up or liquidation of the Company, to participate in the distribution of remaining assets of the Company in proportion to the number of shares held;
7. other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Where any person directly or indirectly having rights and interests fail to disclose such rights and interests, the Company shall not exercise its rights to freeze or otherwise harm any right of such person attached to the shares solely for this reason.

Article 56 The shareholders of ordinary shares of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

1. to comply with the Articles of Association;
2. to pay subscription price according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of subscription;
3. not to abuse shareholder's rights to harm the interests of the Company or other shareholders; not to abuse the independent legal person status and the limited liability of the shareholders to harm the interests of the creditors of the Company;
4. any other obligations provided in the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

The shareholders are not obligated to make any further contribution to the share capital other than as agreed the subscribers of the shares upon subscription.

Article 57 In addition to the obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed, a controlling shareholder (as defined below), in exercising its shareholder's rights, shall not exercise his voting rights in respect of the following matters in a manner prejudicial to the interests of all or a portion of the shareholders of the Company:

1. to exempt a director or supervisor from the obligation of acting honestly in the best interests of the Company;
2. to approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person) of the Company's assets in any way, including (but not limited to) opportunities which are beneficial to the Company;
3. to approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person) of the individual interest of other shareholders, including (but not limited to) any rights to distributions and voting rights (excluding a restructuring which has been submitted for approval by the shareholders in a general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association).

Article 58 The "controlling shareholder" referred to in the previous Article means a person who satisfies any one of the following conditions:

1. a person who, when acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to appoint more than half of the directors;
2. a person who, when acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to exercise more than 30% (included) of the voting rights or has power to control the exercise of more than 30% (included) of the voting rights in the Company;
3. a person who, when acting alone or in concert with others, holds more than 30% (included) of the issued shares of the Company;
4. a person who, when acting alone or in concert with others, has de facto control of the Company in any other way.

Chapter 8 General Meeting

Article 59 The general meeting is the organ of authority of the Company and shall exercise its functions and powers in accordance with laws.

Article 60 The general meeting shall have the following functions and powers:

1. to decide on the Company's operational policies and investment plans;
2. to appoint and replace directors and to decide on matters relating to the remuneration of directors;
3. to appoint and replace supervisors who are shareholders and to decide on matters relating to the remuneration of supervisors;
4. to consider and approve the board of directors' reports;
5. to consider and approve the board of supervisors' reports;
6. to consider and approve the Company's annual preliminary and final financial budgets;
7. to consider and approve the Company's profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans;
8. to pass resolutions on the increase or decrease of the Company's registered capital;
9. to pass resolutions on matters such as merger, division, dissolution, liquidation or change of the corporate form of the Company;
10. to pass resolutions on issuance of bonds of the Company;
11. to pass resolutions on the appointment, dismissal or cease to extend the term of engagement of the accounting firms of the Company;
12. to amend the Articles of Association;
13. to consider motions made by shareholders holding more than 3% (included) of the total number of voting shares of the Company;
14. to consider the equity incentive scheme;

15. to consider the purchase and sale of major assets, the value of which exceeding 30% of the total assets of the Company as shown in the latest published audited financial statements of the Company;
16. any other matters that shall be decided by resolutions of the general meeting as required by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

The general meeting may authorize or entrust the board of directors to handle the matters authorized or entrusted thereby as long as it does not violate any relevant laws, regulations or regulatory documents of the PRC and the mandatory requirements set out in the listing rules of the place of listing.

Article 61 Any guarantee provided by the Company to a third party that meets any of the following criteria shall be considered and passed at a general meeting:

1. any guarantee provided after the aggregate amount of guarantee to third parties provided by the Company and its controlled subsidiaries reaches or exceeds 50% of the net asset of the Company as shown in the latest published audited financial statements of the Company;
2. any guarantee provided after the aggregate amount of guarantee provided by the Company reaches or exceeds 30% of the net asset of the Company as shown in the latest published audited financial statements of the Company;
3. any guarantee provided to a subject whose the asset/debt ratio exceeds 70%;
4. any guarantee in a single transaction, the value of which exceeds 10% of the net asset of the Company as shown in the latest published audited financial statements of the Company;
5. any guarantee provided to a shareholder, actual controller, or a related party thereof;
6. any guarantee that shall be considered and passed at a general meeting as required by the stock exchange in which the shares of the Company are listed and by the Articles of Association.

The “guarantee provided to a third party” referred to in the Articles of Association means the guarantee provided by the Company to a third party which includes the controlled subsidiary of the Company. The “aggregate amount of guarantee to third parties provided by the Company and its controlled subsidiaries” means the aggregate amount of guarantee provided by the Company to third parties including its controlled subsidiaries, and the guarantee provided by the controlled subsidiaries of the Company to third parties.

When the general meeting considers any motion regarding providing guarantee to a shareholder, actual controller, or a related party thereof, such shareholder or any shareholder controlled by such actual controller shall not participate in the voting on such motion, and such motion shall pass by approval of majority of the voting powers held by other shareholders who attend such general meeting.

Article 62 Unless prior approval in the form of a special resolution is obtained in a general meeting, the Company shall not enter into any contract with any person other than the directors, supervisors, senior management personnel pursuant to which such person shall be responsible for the management and administration of the whole or any substantial part of the Company’s business.

Article 63 General meetings are divided into annual general meetings (“AGM”) and extraordinary general meetings. General meetings shall be convened by the board of directors. AGMs are held once every year and within six months from the end of the preceding fiscal year.

The board of directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two months upon the occurrence of any one of the following events:

1. where the number of directors is less than the number stipulated in

2. the Company Law or two-thirds of the number specified in the Articles of Association;
3. where the unrecovered losses of the Company amount to one-third of the total amount of its paid-up share capital;
4. where shareholder(s) who holds more than 10% (included) of the Company's issued voting shares make request(s) in writing for the convening of an extraordinary general meeting;
5. whenever the board of directors deems necessary or the board of supervisors so requests;
6. other circumstances provided by laws, administrative regulations, rules of competent authorities, listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

Article 64 A notice of a general meeting shall be given 45 days before the date of the meeting to all registered shareholders. Such notice shall give such shareholders notice of the matters to be considered at such meeting, the date and the place of the general meeting. A shareholder who intends to attend the general meeting shall deliver his written reply to the Company 20 days before the date of the general meeting.

Article 65 At a general meeting, the shareholder(s) who holds no less than 5% of all shares with voting power of the Company, solely or jointly, are entitled to make new motion in writing, and the Company shall include any matter set out in such motions that fall within the scope of functions and duties of general meeting into the agenda of such meeting.

Article 66 The Company shall, based on the written replies which it receives from the shareholders 20 days before the date of the general meeting, calculate the number of voting shares held by the shareholders and the authorised proxies who intend to attend the meeting. If the number of voting shares held by the shareholders who intend to attend the meeting represents majority of the Company's total shares with voting power, the Company may hold the general meeting; if not, the Company shall, within 5 days, notify the shareholders by public announcement or other means as prescribed in the Articles of Association the matters to be considered and the place and date for, the general meeting. The Company may then hold the general meeting after publication of such announcement or such other means as prescribed in the Articles of Association.

Matters which are not specified in the notice shall not be decided at an extraordinary general meeting.

Article 67 The notice of a general meeting shall satisfy the following requirements:

1. it should be in writing;
2. specifies the place, date and time of the meeting;
3. sets out the matters to be discussed at the meeting;
4. provides the shareholders with such information and explanation as necessary to enable the shareholders to make an informed decision on the proposals put before them. This includes (but is not limited to) where a proposal is made to amalgamate the Company with another, to repurchase shares of the Company, to reorganize its share capital, or to restructure the Company in any other way, the terms of the proposed transaction must be provided in detail together with contracts (if any) and the cause and effect of such proposal must be properly explained;

5. contains a disclosure of the nature and extent of the material interests of any director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel in the proposed transaction and the effect which the proposed transaction will have on them in their capacity as shareholders, if it is different from the effect on the interests of shareholders of the same class;
6. contains the full text of any special resolution to be proposed at the meeting;
7. contains a clear statement that a shareholder entitled to attend and vote at such meeting is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote at such meeting on his behalf and that such proxy needs not be a shareholder;
8. specifies the time and place for lodging proxy forms for the meeting;

The reports of the board of directors, along with the balance sheet (including each documents that shall be attached to the balance sheet as required by law), profit and loss statement of income and expenditure statement, or the summary of financial statements, shall be delivered or sent by post to the registered address of each shareholder at least 21 days prior to the date of the general meetings.

Article 68 The notice of a general meeting shall be publicly announced and delivered to the shareholders (whether or not such shareholders are entitled to vote at the meeting) by hand or by pre-paid mail to the addresses of the shareholders as shown in the register of shareholders of the Company. For shareholders of Domestic-Invested Shares, the notice of the meeting may also be given by way of public announcement.

The public announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one or more newspapers designated by the CSRC during the period between 45 and 50 days before the date of the meeting. Once the announcement is made, all the shareholders of Domestic-Invested Shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant general meeting.

Article 69 If a notice of meeting is accidentally omitted to be sent to any person who is entitled to receive the same or that person has not received such a notice of meeting, it will not cause the meeting and any resolution made therein to be void.

Article 70 Any shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting of the Company shall be entitled to appoint one or more persons (whether such person is a shareholder or not) as his proxy or proxies to attend and vote on his behalf, and a proxy so appointed shall be entitled to exercise the following rights pursuant to the authorization from that shareholder:

1. the shareholders' right to speak at the meeting;
2. the right to demand or join in demanding a poll;
3. the right to vote by hand or on a poll, but a proxy of a shareholder who has appointed more than one proxy may only vote on a poll.

Article 71 A shareholder shall entrust a proxy by a written proxy form which shall be signed by such shareholder or an agent entrusted by such shareholder in writing. If the shareholder is a legal person, the power of attorney shall be affixed with its official seal or signed by its director or an agent or other personnel officially entrusted thereby. Such power of attorney shall specify the number of shares held by the shareholder represented by each proxy.

The power of attorney issued by a shareholder to appoint a proxy to attend a general meeting shall specify the following information:

1. name of the proxy;
2. whether or not such proxy has voting right;
3. instructions on whether to cast affirmative or objective vote, or to waive on each of the matters to be considered and discussed as set forth the general meeting's agenda;

4. the date of issuance and term of the power of attorney;
5. appointing shareholder's signature or official seal; if such shareholder is a legal person, an official seal shall be affixed thereon;
6. the number of shares held by the shareholder represented by the proxy;
7. if more than one proxy is authorized to represent a shareholder, the number of shares represented by each proxy shall be specified.

Article 72 The proxy form shall be maintained at the Company's residence or such other place as specified in the notice convening the meeting at least 24 hours prior to the commencement of the relevant meeting for which the proxy is entrusted to vote, or 24 hours prior to the scheduled voting time. Where the proxy form is signed by a person authorised by the principal, the power of attorney or other authorization documents shall be notarized. The notarized power of attorney and other authorization documents, together with the proxy form, shall be maintained at the Company's residence or such other place as specified in the notice convening the meeting. If the appointing shareholder is a legal person, its legal representative or any other representative authorised by its board of directors or by other decision-making body shall attend the general meeting of the Company on its behalf.

If the shareholder in question is a recognized clearing house defined from time to time in the relevant clauses of Hong Kong laws or the proxy of the clearing house, it may appoint one or more person(s) as it thinks fit to act as its representative(s) at any shareholders' general meeting or any class meetings of shareholders. However, if more than one proxy are authorized by the recognized clearing house shall specify the number and class of shares that each proxy represents. Such duly authorized person may represent the clearing house (or its proxy) to attend the meeting (without showing share certificates, notarized authorization and/or further evidence of duly authorization) exercise the same power as if he/she is an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 73 In any template of proxy form given to a shareholder by the board of directors for the purpose of appointing agents, the shareholders shall be entitled to choose freely whether to instruct its proxy to cast an affirmative or objective vote, and to give instructions on each matter to be voted on in the meeting. It shall be specified in the proxy form that, if the shareholder does not give instructions, the proxy may vote as he thinks fit.

Article 74 In the event that the appointing shareholder is deceased, is incapacitated, revokes his authorization, revokes the authorization to sign proxy form, or if the relevant shares have been transferred, for as long as the Company has not received any written notice in respect of such matters before the commencement of the relevant meeting, the vote casted by the proxy pursuant to the proxy form remains valid.

Article 75 When a proxy attends a general meeting on behalf of a shareholder, he shall show his identity paper. If a legal person shareholder authorizes its legal representative to attend a general meeting, such legal representative shall show his identity paper and a copy of notarized power of attorney issued by the board of directors or other organ of power of such legal person shareholder (except for a clearing house or its proxy).

Article 76 Resolutions of general meetings are divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

An ordinary resolution shall be passed by majority of votes held by the shareholders (including their proxies) present at the meeting. A special resolution shall be passed by more than two-thirds of all votes held by the shareholders (including their proxies) present at the meeting.

Article 77 A shareholder (including its proxy), when voting at a general meeting, may exercise such voting rights as are attached to the voting shares which he represents. Each share shall have one vote.

In the event that any shareholder is required by the Listing Rules to waive his voting right or is limited to an affirmative or objective vote on certain matter, such shareholder shall waive his voting right or vote in compliance with such requirements. Any vote casted by such shareholder or his proxy in violation against such requirement or limitation shall not be counted into the poll.

Article 78 Unless any of the following persons requires a vote by casting votes prior to or after voting by hand, a general meeting shall vote by hand:

1. chairman of the meeting;
2. at least two shareholders present in person or by proxy and being entitled to vote;
3. one or more shareholders present in person or by proxy and holding more than 10% of all voting shares present at the meeting solely or jointly.

Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been passed on a show of hands and the record of such in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the passing of such resolution. There is no need to prove the number or proportion of votes in favor of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who demands the same.

Article 79 A poll demanded to decide on the chairman of the meeting, or to adjourn the meeting shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any other business may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

Article 80 On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including a proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his votes in the same way.

Article 81 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall have one additional vote.

Article 82 The following matters shall be resolved by an ordinary resolution at a general meeting:

1. work reports of the board of directors and the board of supervisors;
2. profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans formulated by the board of directors;
3. appointment and removal of members of the board of directors and supervisors assumed by non-representatives of the employees, remuneration for directors and supervisors and manner of payment;
4. annual preliminary and final budgets, balance sheets and profit and loss accounts and other financial statements of the Company;
5. matters other than those which are required by law and administrative regulations or by the Articles of Association to be adopted by special resolution.

Article 83 The following matters shall be resolved by a special resolution at a general meeting:

1. the increase or decrease of share capital and the issue of shares of any class, warrants and other similar securities;
2. the issue of debentures of the Company;
3. the division, merger, dissolution, liquidation or change of corporate form of the Company;
4. amendment to the Articles of Association;
5. any purchase or disposal of substantial assets made or guarantee provided by the Company within one year, the amount of which exceeds 0% of the total assets as presented in the latest audited financial statements of the Company;
6. any other matters required by law, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, and those considered by the shareholders in general meeting and resolved by way of an ordinary resolution, to be of a nature which have a material impact on the Company and should be adopted by special resolutions.

Article 84 An extraordinary general meeting or class meeting convened upon the request of shareholders shall be conducted in accordance with the following procedures:

1. the shareholders who solely or jointly hold more than 10% (included) of the shares with voting power at the proposed meeting may sign one or more written request of the same form, requesting the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting or class meeting, and specify the topics of such meeting. The board of directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting or class meeting as soon as possible upon its receipt of such written request. The number of shares held by the shareholders aforementioned shall be calculated on the date of such written notice.

2. If the board of directors does not issue the meeting notice within 30 days upon its receipt of the abovementioned request, the requesting shareholders may convene such meeting by themselves within 4 months upon the receipt of such request by the board of directors. The convening procedures shall be as similar to those of convening a general meeting by the board of directors as possible.

If shareholders convene and hold a meeting themselves because the board of directors failed to hold such meeting pursuant to a request as mentioned above, the reasonable expenses incurred by such shareholders shall be borne by the Company and shall be deducted from the sums owed by the Company to the negligent directors.

Article 85 The general meeting shall be convened and chaired by the chairman of the board of directors; if the chairman cannot attend the meeting, it shall be convened and chaired by the vice chairman. If both the chairman and the vice chairman of the board of directors cannot to attend the meeting, the board of directors may appoint a director to convene and chair the meeting on their behalf; if no chairman of the meeting is appointed, the shareholders attending such meeting may elect one person to act as chairman of the meeting. If, for any reason, the shareholders cannot elect a chairman of the meeting, the position shall be assumed by the shareholder (including a proxy) present at the meeting who the most shares with voting rights.

Article 86 The chairman of the meeting shall be responsible for determining whether a resolution has been passed. His decision, which shall be final and conclusive, shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes.

Article 87 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of a resolution which has been put to vote at a general meeting, he may have the votes counted. If the chairman of the meeting has not counted the votes, any shareholder who is present in person or by proxy and who objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting may, immediately after the declaration of the result, demand that the votes be counted and the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

Article 88 If votes are counted at a general meeting, the result of the count shall be recorded in the minutes.

All resolutions passed over the matters considered at a general meeting shall be made into meeting minutes which shall be signed by the directors present at the meeting. The meeting minutes, along with the signing book of the shareholders present and the proxy forms for shareholders attending by proxy, shall be kept at the residence of the Company.

The meeting minutes shall include the following information:

1. time, location, and agenda of the meeting, and name of the convener;
2. the names of the chairman of the meeting, and the directors, supervisors and senior management personnel present or observing the meeting;
3. the number of shareholders (including holders of Domestic-Invested Shares and Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares, if any) and proxies, the aggregate number of shares with voting power, and the proportion they take respectively in the total shares of the Company;
4. the consideration process, major points of speech, and voting results of each motion considered;
5. queries and suggestion made by shareholders, and response and explanation thereto;

6. names of the people who count the votes and supervise the voting;
7. any other information that shall be kept in the meeting minutes as provided in the Articles of Association.

Article 89 The convener of the meeting shall guarantee that the contents thereof are truthful, accurate and complete. All directors, supervisors, secretary of the board, convener or his representative, and chairman of the meeting shall sign the meeting minutes. The meeting minutes shall be kept for no less than 10 years, along with the signing book of the shareholders present, the proxy forms for shareholders attending by proxy, valid data of voting on internet or by other means.

Article 90 The shareholders may review the photocopies of the minutes of general meetings at business hour for free. The Company shall provide the photocopies of such meeting minutes within 7 days upon receipt of reasonable fees upon any shareholder's request for such photocopies of meeting minutes.

Chapter 9 Special Procedures for Voting at Class Meetings

Article 91 The shareholders who hold different classes of shares are class shareholders.

Class shareholders shall enjoy rights and assume obligations in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association. Where the capital of the Company includes shares without voting rights, the words "non-voting" shall appear in the designation of such shares.

Where the equity capital of the Company includes shares with different voting rights, the designation of each class of shares, other than those with the most favorable voting rights, must include the words "restricted voting" or "limited voting".

Article 92 Rights conferred on any class of shareholders (“Class Rights”) may not be varied or cancelled save with the approval of a special resolution of shareholders in a general meeting and by holders of shares of that class at a separate meeting conducted in accordance with Articles 94 to 98 hereof. The quorum of such class meetings (other than an adjourned continued meeting) shall be holders of at least one-third of this class of shares issued and allotted.

Article 93 The following circumstances shall be deemed to be variation or cancellation of the rights attaching to a particular class of shares:

1. to increase or decrease the number of shares of that class, or to increase or decrease the number of shares of a class having equal or better voting, distribution or other rights to those of shares of that class;
2. to exchange all or part of the shares of that class for shares of another class or to exchange or to create a right to exchange all or part of the shares of another class for shares of that class;
3. to remove or reduce rights to accrued dividends or to cumulative dividends attaching to shares of that class;
4. to reduce or remove preferential rights attaching to shares of that class to receive dividends or to the distribution of assets in the event that the Company is liquidated;
5. to add, remove or reduce conversion privileges, options, voting rights, transfer or pre-emptive rights, or rights to acquire securities of the Company attaching to shares of that class;
6. to remove or reduce rights to receive payment from the Company in specific currencies attaching to shares of that class;
7. to create a new class of shares having equal or better voting, distribution or other rights to those of the shares of that class;

8. to impose or increase restrictions on the transfer of ownership of shares of that class;
9. to issue rights to subscribe for, or to convert the existing shares into, shares in the Company of that class or another class;
10. to increase the rights or privileges of shares of another class;
11. to restructure the Company in such a way so as to result in the disproportionate distribution of obligations between the various classes of shareholders;
12. to vary or abrogate the provisions of this Chapter.

Article 94 Affected class shareholders, whether or not otherwise having the right to vote at general meetings, have the right to vote at class meetings in respect of matters concerning sub-paragraphs 2 to 8, 11 and 12 of Article 93 hereof, but interested shareholder(s) shall not be entitled to vote at such class meetings.

“Interested shareholder(s)”, as such term is used in the preceding paragraph, means:

1. in the case of a repurchase of shares by way of a general offer to all shareholders of the Company or by way of an on-market repurchase pursuant to Article 29, an interested shareholder is a “controlling shareholder” as defined in Article 58;
2. in the case of a repurchase of shares by an off-market agreement pursuant to Article 29 hereof, a holder of the shares to which the proposed agreement relates;
3. in the case of a restructuring of the Company, a shareholder who assumes a relatively lower proportion of obligations than the obligations imposed on shareholders of the same class under the proposed restructuring or who has an interest in the proposed restructuring different from the general interests of the shareholders of that class.

Article 95 Resolutions of a class of shareholders shall be passed by votes representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights of shareholders of that class represented at the relevant meeting who, according to Article 94, are entitled to vote.

Article 96 A written notice of a class meeting shall be given to all shareholders who are registered as holders of that class in the register of shareholders 45 days before the date of the class meeting (not including the date of meeting). Such notice shall give such shareholders notice of the matters to be considered at such meeting, the date and the place of the class meeting. A shareholder who intends to attend the class meeting shall deliver his written reply in respect thereof to the Company 20 days before the date of the class meeting.

If the shareholders who intend to attend such class meeting represent the majority of the total number of shares of that class which have the right to vote at such meeting, the Company may hold the class meeting; if not, the Company shall within five days give the shareholders further notice of the matters to be considered, the date and the place of the class meeting by way of public announcement or in such other form as required by the Articles of Association. The Company may then hold the class meeting after such public announcement or such other form as required by the Articles of Association has been made.

If the listing rules of the place of listing have special requirement, such requirement shall prevail.

Article 97 Notice of class meetings need only be served on shareholders entitled to vote at the meetings.

Class meetings shall be conducted in the same manner as general meetings, to the extent possible. The provisions of the Articles of Association relating to procedures of general meetings are also applicable to class meetings.

Article 98 Apart from the holders of other classes of shares, the holders of the Domestic-Invested Shares and holders of Non-Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares shall be deemed to be holders of the same classes of shares; the holders of the Domestic-Invested Shares and holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares shall be deemed to be holders of different classes of shares; the holders of Non-Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares shall be deemed as holders of different classes of shares.

The special procedures for approval by a class of shareholders shall not apply in the following circumstances:

1. where the Company issues, upon the approval by special resolution of its shareholders in a general meeting, either separately or concurrently once every 12 months, not more than 20% of each of its existing issued Domestic-Invested Shares and Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares;
2. where such shares belong to the Company's plan to issue Domestic-Invested Shares and Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares at the time of its establishment is carried out within 15 months from the date of approval of the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council.

Chapter 10 Board of Directors

Article 99 The Company shall set up the board of directors which shall consist of 9 directors, the majority of which shall be outside directors. The board of directors shall have 1 chairman and 8 directors.

Article 100 Directors shall be elected at the general meeting and each has a term of 3 years. Upon the expiry of the term of office of a director, the term is renewable upon re-election, unless the laws, regulations, the Articles of Association and the listing rules of the place of listing provide otherwise.

The general meeting shall not dismiss any director without valid reasons prior to the expiry of his service term. The Company may have independent directors based on its needs, who shall be nominated by shareholders holding more than 1% of the Company's shares, and shall be elected and replaced by the general meeting. Each independent director shall have a term of 3 years, which can be extended upon reelection.

Provided that the relevant laws and administrative regulations are observed, a director whose term of office has not yet expired may be removed in general meeting by way of ordinary resolution (but the right to lodge a claim under any contract is not affected).

Provided that the relevant laws, regulations and supervisory rulings of the place of listing are observed, if the board of directors appoint a new director to take a temporary vacancy at the board, such appointed director's term shall expire at the next general meeting, and is entitled to reelection. If the board of directors increase a seat thereof and appoint a new director to take such seat, such appointed director's term shall expire at the next AGM, and is entitled to reelection.

The written notices regarding the intention to nominate a director and candidate's intention to accept the nomination shall be delivered to the Company 7 days prior to the general meeting (such 7-day period shall commence no earlier than the second day after the meeting notice specifying such election, and shall end no later than 7 days prior to the commencement of such general meeting.)

The chairman and vice chairman of the board of directors shall be elected or dismissed by majority of all directors. The terms of office of the chairman and vice chairman of the board of directors shall be 3 years, which may be extended upon reelection thereof.

The directors do not have to hold any share of the Company.

The board of directors shall have no less than one-third, and no less than 3 independent non-executive directors, at least one of which shall have proper professional qualification, or expertise in accounting or financial management. In the event that any independent non-executive director becomes non-compliant with the the requirement on independency, or other situation occurs which makes it inappropriate for him to act as an independent non-executive director, and consequently results in the number of independent non-executive directors fall below the number as required by the Articles of Association, the Company shall make up such number pursuant to the relevant provisions.

At least one independent non-executive director of the Company shall reside in Hong Kong.

Article 101 The board of directors is responsible to the general meeting, and exercise the following functions and duties:

1. to be responsible for the convening of the general meetings and to report on its work to the shareholders in general meetings;
2. to implement the resolutions passed by the shareholders in general meetings;
3. to determine the Company's business plans and investment proposals;
4. to formulate the Company's annual preliminary and final financial budgets;
5. to formulate the Company's profit distribution proposal and loss recovery proposal;

6. to formulate proposals for the increase or decrease of the Company's registered capital and for the issue bonds;
7. to formulate plans for merger, division, or dissolution of the Company;
8. to decide the on the Company's internal management structure;
9. to hire or dismiss the general manager and secretary of the board of directors, and hire or dismiss the vice general manager and other senior management personnel (including the chief financial officer), and decide on their remuneration;
10. to formulate the general management policies of the Company;
11. to formulate the plan to amend the Articles of Association;
12. other functions and duties authorized by the Articles of Association and the general meeting.

For the purposes of passing resolutions by the board of directors for the matters set forth above, affirmative votes by more than two-thirds of the directors are required for all the Items except for Items 6, 7 and 11, and for any other matters, affirmative votes by the majority of the directors are required.

In the event of vacancy at the board of directors, if the remaining number of directors falls below the number as required in the Company Law or less than two-third of the number provided in the Articles of Association, the board of directors is entitled to appoint any person to act as a director to fill in such vacancy. The term of such temporary director shall last till the next AGM, and is entitled to reelection.

Article 102 The board of directors shall establish audit committee, remuneration and appraisal committee, and nomination committee, and may establish other special committees, to provide consultation and suggestion on major decisions for the board.

All special committees are responsible to the board of directors, and shall be consisted of directors. All members on the audit committee shall be independent directors, and the audit committee shall have at least 3 members, the majority of which shall be the independent non-executive directors, and at least one member shall be an independent non-executive director with the appropriate professional qualifications as required by the Listing Rules, or expertise in accounting or financial management. The chairman of the audit committee shall be an independent non-executive director. The chairman of the nomination committee shall be the chairman of the board or an independent non-executive director, and the majority of which shall be independent non-executive directors. The board of directors may establish other special committees or adjust any existing committee. The board of directors shall formulate the detailed rules regarding the responsibilities, procedures and other matters of the special committees.

Article 103 The board of directors shall not dispose of or agree to dispose of any fixed assets without approval by the general meeting if the sum of the expected value of the fixed assets to be disposed of and the value derived from the disposal of fixed assets within four months before such proposed disposal of the fixed assets exceeds 33% of the value of the fixed assets as shown on the latest balance sheet considered and approved at the general meeting.

“Disposal of fixed assets” mentioned herein include transfer of certain asset interests, but do not include provision of security interests by pledge of fixed assets.

The effectiveness of the Company’s disposal of fixed assets shall not be affected by any breach of the foregoing provisions in Paragraph 1 of this Article.

Article 104 The chairman of the board of directors shall exercise the following functions and duties:

1. to preside over shareholders’ general meetings and to convene and preside over meetings of the board of directors;
2. to review the implementation of resolutions passed by the board of directors;

3. to sign the bonds issued by the Company;
4. to exercise other functions and duties conferred by the board of directors.

When the chairman of the board cannot exercise his functions and duties, he may appoint the vice chairman to exercise his functions and duties on his behalf.

Article 105 The board meeting shall be convened at least twice a year by the chairman. Meeting notices shall be delivered by hand, mail, fax, or email to all directors and supervisors 10 days prior to the meeting.

Article 106 A board meeting shall be held only if a majority of all the directors (including any director who has authorized other directors in writing to attend the meeting on behalf of him) are present.

Each director shall have one vote. Resolutions made by the board of directors shall be approved by a majority of all the directors, unless the laws, regulations and the Articles of Association provide otherwise.

In the event of a deadlock between the affirmative and objective votes, the chairman is entitled to an additional vote.

Article 107 The directors shall attend the board of directors' meeting in person. In the event that a director is unable to attend the meeting for any reason, he may appoint in writing another director to attend on his behalf. The power of attorney shall specify the scope of authorization.

The director who attends the meeting on behalf of another director shall exercise the right of the director within the scope of authorization. If any director fails to attend the board meeting, nor does he authorize a proxy to attend on his behalf, such director shall be deemed to have waived his voting rights at that meeting.

If any director or his close associate (as defined in the Listing Rules) has any interests in any matter to be resolved at a board meeting such director shall recuse himself and shall not vote thereon. Such director shall not be counted for the purpose of the quorum of this meeting.

Except for the exception permitted in Annotation Note 1 of Appendix III of the Listing Rules or by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, a director shall not vote on any contract or arrangement or other suggested matters to be resolved by the board in which he holds, by himself or through his close associates (as defined in the Listing Rules), major interests, nor shall he exercise any voting rights on behalf of another director. Such board meeting may be convened when a majority of directors with no relation thereto are present (the related directors shall not be counted for calculation of quorum). The resolutions made at such board meetings shall pass with affirmative votes by a majority of non-related directors. If the number of non-related directors present at such board meeting is less than 3, such matter shall be submitted to the general meeting for consideration.

When considering any transaction involving any controlling shareholder of the Company or any close associate thereof of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, a director of the Company who also acts as director and/or senior management personnel any controlling shareholder or its subsidiaries (excluding the Company or the subsidiaries thereof) shall not have the voting right thereon, and shall not be counted for calculation of quorum.

If the quorum cannot be met due to the reasons mentioned above for a board meeting, such matters shall be submitted to the general meeting for consideration.

The “controlling shareholder”, “subsidiaries” and “close associates” shall have the definition as provided in the Listing Rules. If the board of directors believes that any major shareholder (as defined in the Listing Rules) or director has conflict of interests with respect to any matter to be considered, such matter shall not be handled by circulation of documents or by a committee under the board (except for a committee established specifically for this matter by resolution of the board). Instead, the board of directors shall hold a board meeting for such matter. The independent non-executive directors who have no major interest in such matter, either by himself or through his close associate (as defined in the Listing Rules) shall attend such board meeting.

Article 108 Matters determined in a board meeting shall be recorded in minutes of meetings. Minutes of meetings shall be signed by directors attending such meetings and the recorder. Directors shall be responsible to board resolutions. If a board resolution is against the law, administrative rules or these Articles of Association and resolutions of the shareholders’ general meetings, which causes the Company to suffer any loss, the directors who participate in voting shall assume the liability to compensate the Company; directors who have been proved as having expressed dissenting opinions on the resolution during the voting as recorded in the minutes of meeting shall be exempted from liability.

Article 109 A director may resign before his term of office expires. The resigning director shall tender a written resignation to the board of directors in writing. The board of directors shall disclose such situation within 2 days. If the resignation by a director will result in the number of directors falling below the legal minimum, the resignation of such director shall not take effect until a new director is appointed to take up the vacancy. The other directors shall convene a general meeting as soon as possible to elect such new director. Other than the aforementioned situation, the resignation of such director shall take effect upon its delivery to the board.

Article 110 Upon the resignation of or expiration of term of a director, he shall properly hand over all his work to the board of directors, and his fiduciary duties against the Company and the shareholders shall not terminate immediately, but shall survive for 2 years. His confidential obligations over the trade secrets of the Company shall also survive upon his resignation or expiration of term of office until such trade secrets become public information. The terms of his other obligations thereafter shall be decided based on the principle of fairness, depending on the period between the time an event occurred and the time of his departure from office, and the situation and conditions under which his relationship with the Company is terminated.

Article 111 Unless legally authorized under the Articles of Association or by the board of directors, no director shall be entitled to act by himself on behalf of the Company or the board. If a third party may reasonably believe that such director is acting on behalf of the Company or the board when he is actually acting by himself, such director shall explicitly declare his status and standing.

Article 112 If the board carries out any of its functions and duties in violation to the laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations or the provisions of the Articles of Association, which causes losses to the Company, the board shall be liable for such losses.

Chapter 11 Secretary of the Board of Directors

Article 113 The Company shall have one secretary of the board of directors, who shall be hired or dismissed by the board. The secretary of the board shall be one of the senior management personnel.

13. any other duties as authorized by the board of directors, and required by the laws of the place of listing or by the relevant provisions of the stock exchange.

Article 115 A director of other senior management personnel may also take the position as the secretary of the board of directors. The accountants of the accounting firms engaged by the Company shall not take such position.

If the secretary of director is a director of the Company, and if an action shall be taken in the capacities as the director and as the secretary of the board separately, such person shall not take such action in both such capacities.

Article 116 The directors, general manager and internal departments of the Company shall support the secretary of the board in legally performing his duties, and provide necessary guarantee in department structure, personnel and finance. All relevant departments of the Company shall actively coordinate with the secretary of the board's work.

Chapter 12 Secretary of the Company

Article 117 The Company shall hire a secretary of the Company, and ensure good communication among the directors, and comply with the policies and procedures of the board of directors. The secretary of the Company shall report to the chairman of the board of directors and/or the general manager, and provide their opinions to the board on the management of the Company, and arrange the entry training and professional development.

Article 118 The selection, engagement or dismissal of the secretary of the Company shall be approved by the board directors, the decision of which shall be made at a board meeting instead of by written resolution. The secretary of of the Company shall be an individual recognized by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange as competent to perform their duties with respect to academics, professional qualification or experience. The Company may select the secretary of the Company from its employees who are familiar with the daily business of the Company, or engage an outside service agency to take such position. If the Company engages an outside service agency to act as the secretary of the Company, the Company shall appoint one of the senior management personnel to act as the liaison with such agency.

Article 119 The secretary of the Company shall participate no less than 15 hours' professional training each fiscal year.

Article 120 All directors of the Company may obtain opinion from and services provided by the secretary of the Company, to ensure the compliance with the procedures of the board and all laws, regulations and codes.

5. the directors, supervisors and senior management of a company which is being controlled in the manner set out in Paragraph 4 above.

Article 139 The duty of a director, supervisor, and the senior management personnel to act in good faith does not necessarily terminate on the expiration of their term of office. His duty of confidentiality in respect of trade secrets of the Company survives the termination of his tenure until the same has become open information. Other duties may continue for such period as the principle of fairness may require depending on the length of time which has lapsed between the termination and the act concerned and on the circumstances and the terms under which the relationship with the Company was terminated.

Article 140 A director, supervisor or senior management personnel of the Company may be relieved of liability for specific breaches of his duty with the informed consent of the shareholders given at a general meeting, save under the circumstances of Article 57 hereof.

Article 141 Where a director, supervisor or senior management personnel of the Company is in any way, directly or indirectly, materially interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement or proposed contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company, (other than his service contract with the Company), he shall declare the nature and extent of his interests to the board of directors at the earliest opportunity, whether or not the contract, transaction or arrangement or proposal therefor is otherwise subject to the approval of the board of directors.

Unless the interested director, supervisor, senior management personnel discloses his interests in accordance with the preceding paragraph of this Article and the contract, transaction or arrangement is approved by the board of directors at a meeting in which the director, supervisor, or senior management personnel is not counted as part of the quorum and refrains from voting the Company shall have the right to cancel such contract, transaction or arrangement except as against a bona fide party who does not have notice of the breach of duty by the interested director, supervisor or senior management personnel.

A director, supervisor or senior management personnel of the Company is deemed to have interests in a contract, transaction or arrangement in which his associate has interests.

Article 142 Where a director, supervisor or senior management personnel of the Company gives to the board of directors a notice in writing stating that, by reason of the facts specified in the notice, he is interested in contracts, transactions or arrangements which may subsequently be made by the Company, that notice shall be deemed for the purposes of the preceding Article to be a sufficient disclosure of his interests, so far as the content stated in such notice is concerned, provided that such notice shall have been given before the date on which the question of entering into the relevant contract, transaction or arrangement is first taken into consideration by the Company.

Article 143 Other than the withholding tax as provided by law, the Company shall not pay taxes for or on behalf of a director, supervisor or senior management personnel in any manner.

Article 144 The Company shall not directly or indirectly make a loan to or provide any guarantee in connection with the making of a loan to a director, supervisor or senior management personnel of the Company or its holding company or any of their respective associates.

The foregoing prohibition shall not apply to the following circumstances:

1. provision of a loan by the Company to its subsidiary;
2. the provision by the Company of a loan or a guarantee in connection with the making of a loan or other payment to its directors, supervisors, senior management personnel to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him for the purposes of the Company or for the purpose of enabling him to perform his duties properly, in accordance with the terms of service contracts approved by the shareholders in general meetings;
3. if the ordinary course of business of the Company includes providing loans or guarantees, the Company may make a loan to or provide a guarantee in connection with the making of a loan to a director, supervisor, senior management personnel or his associates in the ordinary course of its business on normal commercial terms.

Article 145 Any person who receives a loan which has been provided by the Company in breach of the preceding Article shall, irrespective of the terms and conditions of the loan, forthwith repay such funds.

Article 146 A guarantee for the repayment of a loan which has been provided by the Company acting in breach of Article 144 Paragraph 1 shall not be enforceable against the Company, save in respect of the following circumstances:

1. the guarantee was provided in connection with a loan which was made to an associate of a director, supervisor, and senior management personnel of the Company or the Company's parent company and the lender of such funds was not aware of the relevant circumstances when making the loan;
2. the collateral which has been provided by the Company has already been lawfully disposed of by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 147 For the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, a “guarantee” includes an undertaking or property provided to secure the obligor’s performance of his obligations.

Article 148 In addition to any rights and remedies provided by the laws and administrative regulations, where a director, supervisor or senior management personnel of the Company breaches the duties which he owes to the Company, the Company has a right:

1. to demand such a director, supervisor or senior management personnel to compensate the Company for its losses sustained as a result of such breach;
2. to rescind any contract or transaction which has been entered into between the Company and such a director, supervisor or senior management personnel or entered into between the Company and a third party (where such third party knew or should have known that such a director, supervisor or senior management personnel representing the Company has breached his duties owed to the Company);
3. to demand such a director, supervisor or senior management personnel to surrender the gains made as result of the breach of his obligations;
4. to recover any monies which should have been received by the Company and which were received by such a director, supervisor or senior management personnel instead, including (without limitation to) commissions;
5. to demand repayment of interest earned or which may have been earned by a director, supervisor or senior management personnel on money that should have been paid to the Company.

Article 149 : The Company shall enter into written contract with each director or supervisor, which shall include:

1. the warranties made by the director or supervisor to comply with the Company Law, the Special Regulations, the Articles of Association, the Code on Takeovers and Mergers and the Code on Share Buy-Backs (as amended from time to time) approved by the Securities and Futures Commission of Hong Kong, and agree that the Company is entitled to the remedies provided in the Articles and Association, and that such contract as well as his position shall not be assigned;
2. the warranties made by a director, supervisor or senior management personnel to observe and perform their respective obligations against the shareholders as provided in the Articles of Association;
3. the arbitration clause provided in Article 201 of the Articles of Association.

Article 150 The Company shall enter into written contract with a director or supervisor in relation to emoluments, which shall be approved in advance by the shareholders in a general meeting. The aforesaid emoluments include:

1. emoluments in respect of his service as director, supervisor, or senior management personnel of the Company;
2. emoluments in respect of his service as a director, supervisor or senior management personnel of any subsidiary of the Company;
3. emoluments in respect of the provision of other services in connection with the management of the Company and any of its subsidiaries;
4. payment by way of compensation for loss of office, or as consideration for or in connection with his retirement from office.

No proceedings may be brought by a director or supervisor against the Company for anything due to him except pursuant to the preceding contracts.

Article 151 The contract concerning the emoluments between the Company and its directors or supervisors should provide that in the event that the Company is acquired, the Company's directors and supervisors shall, subject to the prior approval of shareholders in a general meeting, have the right to receive compensation or other payment for his loss of office or retirement. For the purposes of this paragraph, the acquisition of the Company includes any of the following:

1. an acquisition offer made by any person to the general body of shareholders;
2. an acquisition offer made by any person with a view to the offeror becoming a "controlling shareholder" within the meaning of Article 56 hereof.

If the relevant director or supervisor does not comply with this Article, any payment so received by him shall belong to those persons who have sold their shares as a result of the aforementioned offer. The expenses incurred in distributing such payment on a pro rata basis amongst such persons shall be borne by the relevant director or supervisor and shall not be deducted from such payment.

Article 152 The Company may establish the director, supervisor and senior management personnel responsibility insurance policy as necessary to reduce to risks that might incur from their normal performance of their duties.

Article 196 Notices, communications or any other written materials of the Company (including but not limited to the annual report, interim report, quarterly report, meeting notice, listing documents, shareholders' communication, proxy form, provisional announcement, etc.) may be sent out by the following means:

1. by hand;
2. by mail;
3. by fax or email;
4. by announcements in the Company's website and the websites designated by Hong Kong Stock Exchange subject to the laws, administrative regulations and listing rules of the place of listing;
5. by public announcements on newspapers and other designated media;
6. by other manners as agreed in advance or recognized after receipt by the recipients of such notices;
7. other manners as recognized by securities regulatory authorities at the place of listing or as provided in these Articles of Association.

Any notice delivered by the Company by announcement shall be deemed to have been received by the relevant parties once announced.

Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Association, an electronic copy that may be posted in real time of the notices sent by announcement to the holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares by the Company shall be sent to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange through its electronic publishing system on the same day in accordance with the Listing Rules, so that such announcement can be posted on the website of Hong Kong Stock Exchange. Such announcement shall be also posted on the Company's website. In addition, such notice shall be delivered by hand or by pre-paid mail to each holder at his address recorded on the register of shareholders.

Unless otherwise defined, the "announcement" referred to in these Articles of Association shall mean, with respect to an announcement that is sent to the holders of Domestic-Invested Shares or shall be sent within the PRC in compliance with the relevant provisions or the Articles of Association, the announcement published on Chinese newspapers as provided under the PRC laws and regulations or designated by the securities supervisory authority of the State Council; with respect to an announcement that is sent to the holders of H Shares or shall be sent within Hong Kong in compliance with the relevant provisions or the Articles of Association, such announcement shall be published on the newspapers of Hong Kong in accordance with the Listing Rules. All announcements and other documents submitted by the Company to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange under Chapter 13 of the Listing Rules shall be drafted in English or attached with a signed and verified English translation.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary regarding the publishing or form of notice of any notice, communication or other written materials in these Articles of Association, subject to the listing rules of the place of listing, the Company may choose the form of notice provided in Paragraph 1 Item 4 of this Article to publish such notice, communication or other written materials in lieu of delivering by hand or by pre-paid mail to each holder of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares.

Article 197 Where the Company is required by the securities regulatory authorities at the place of listing and the stock exchange to send, mail, pass, deliver, issue or provide relevant documents of the Company in both English and Chinese, if the Company has made appropriate arrangement to ensure whether its shareholders intend to receive an English copy only or a Chinese copy only, and within the scope permitted by applicable laws and regulations and in accordance therewith, the Company may (based on the intention clearly presented by its shareholders) send an English copy or Chinese copy of such communications (including but not limited to the general meeting notices, shareholders' communication, annual reports, interim reports and quarterly reports) to relevant shareholders. Subject to the applicable laws, regulations and the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed, the Company may also send the notices to holders of Foreign-Invested Shares by publishing the relevant materials on its website.

Article 198 With respect to any notice sent by the Company by hand and signed (or affixed with seal) on its return slip by the recipient, the date of receipt shall be the date of delivery; with respect to any notice sent by mail, the fifth day after it is delivered to the post office shall be the date of delivery; with respect to any notice sent by fax or email or publishing on websites, the date of sending shall be the date of delivery; with respect to any notice sent by public announcement, the date of first announcement shall be the date of delivery, provided that such announcement is published on the newspapers or websites in accordance with the relevant provisions.

Any notice sent by the Company by public announcement shall be deemed to have been received by all relevant parties upon its announcement.

Chapter 22 Validity of the Amendment to the Articles of Association

Article 199 Any amendment to these Articles of Association that involve the contents of the Mandatory Provisions shall become effective upon approvals by the approval authorities authorized by the State Council and the CSRC. If any amendment to these Articles of Association involves the registered information of the Company, the Company shall apply for change of registration in accordance with law.
